© I'm trading my sorrows, I'm trading my shame, I'm laying them down for the joy of the Lord.
I'm trading my sickness, I'm trading my pain, I'm laying them down for the joy of the Lord.

Yes, Lord, yes, Lord, yes, yes, Lord;
Yes, Lord, yes, Lord, yes, yes, Lord,
Yes, Lord, yes, Lord, yes, yes, Lord, amen.

I am pressed but not crushed, persecuted, not abandoned, struck down, but not destroyed;
I am blessed beyond the curse, for God's promise will endure, that God's joy's gonna be my strength.
Though the sorrow may last for the night, God's joy comes with the morning. (C)

Our Common Prayer (Will Willamon)

Un-stop our ears, O God,
that we may hear your Word proclaimed this day.
Open our minds and hearts to be changed.
Free us from the unclean spirits of worry, fear, destruction, and pride.
Teach us, Lord, that we may follow you more faithfully. Amen.

Scripture Lesson - Deuteronomy 18:15-20

God will raise up for you a prophet like me from among your own people; you shall heed such a prophet. This is what you requested of your God at Horeb on the day of the assembly when you said: "If I hear the voice of my God any more, or ever again see this great fire, I will die." Then God replied to me: "They are right in what they have said. I will raise up for them a prophet like you from among their own people; I will put my words in the mouth of the prophet, who shall speak to them everything that I command. Anyone who does not heed the words that the prophet shall speak in my name, I myself will hold accountable. But any prophet who speaks in the name of the other gods, or who presumes to speak in my name a word that I have not commanded the prophet to speak — that prophet shall die."

Psalm 111

UMH 832

R Great are the works of the Lord, which abound to the ends of the earth.

Praise the Lord.

I will give thanks to the Lord with my whole heart,
in the company of the upright, in the congregation.

Great are the works of the Lord,
studied by all who have pleasure in them.

Full of honor and majesty are the works of the Lord whose righteousness endures for ever,

Who has caused his wonderful works to be remembered;
the Lord is gracious and merciful.

The Lord provides food for the faithful and is ever mindful of his covenant. (R)

The Lord has shown his people the power of his works by giving them the heritage of the nations.

The works of the Lord's hands are faithful and just;
the precepts of the Lord are trustworthy;
they are established for ever and ever,
to be performed with faithfulness and uprightness.

The Lord has sent redemptions to his people
and has commanded his covenant for ever.
Holy and wondrous is God's name!

This fear of the Lord is the beginning of wisdom;
all those who practice it have a good understanding.
The praise of the Lord endures for ever. (R)

Mark 1:21-28

They went to Capernaum; and when the sabbath came, he entered the synagogue and taught. They were astounded at his teaching, for he taught them as one having authority, and not as the scribes. Just then there was in their synagogue a man with an unclean spirit, and he cried out, "What have you to do with us, Jesus of Nazareth? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are, the Holy One of God."

But Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be silent, and come out of him!" And the unclean spirit, confusing him and crying with a loud voice, came out of him. They were all amazed, and they kept on asking one another, "What is this? A new teaching — with authority! He commands even the unclean spirits, and they obey him." At once his fame began to spread throughout the surrounding region of Galilee.

Hymn

Silence, Frenzied, Unclean Spirit

cried God's healing Holy One.
"Cease your ranting! Flesh can't bear it, flee as night before the sun."
At Christ's words the demon trembled,
from its victim madly rushed,
while the crowd that was assembled stood in wonder, stunned and hushed.

² Lord, the demons are still thriving
in the gray cells of the mind:
tyrant voices, shrill and driving,
twisted thoughts that grip and bind,
doubts that stir the heart to panic,
fears distorting reason's sight,
guilt that makes our loving frantic,
dreams that cloud the soul with fright.

³ Silence, Lord, the unclean spirit in our mind and in our heart;
speak your word that when we hear it, all our demons shall depart.
Clear our thought and calm our feeling; still the fractured, warring soul.
By the power of your healing make us faithful, true, and whole.

"What have you to do with us, Jesus?"

Litany of Response - "O God We Long for Your Presence"

(inspired by Mark 1:21-28, Rev. Dr. Ginny Brown Daniel)

Brothers and sisters in Christ,
what hopes do you bring to worship?

We bring hope for health and wholeness.

What afflictions do you bring to worship?

Physical pain?

From sad and scary life situations.

Mental pain?

From dis-ease of many kinds.

With all of these afflictions,

It's a miracle that any of us have made it to worship this morning!

But where else would we be?

We yearn to know God's powerful love

And to know that wholeness is possible.

In today's gospel, a person with an "afflicting spirit" interrupts Jesus

And Jesus free him.

And where does the miracle of his story and our stories begin?

When we bring all of who we are — hopeful, afflicted, bold —

Into relationship with the Divine.

Some come, let us enter this sanctuary with our whole selves

— hopeful afflicted and bold —

Come, let us worship!

Prayer of Dedication (Mark 1:14-20)

God, help us to take responsibility for someone other than ourselves. Help us to walk with you, not alone, but in the company of others. Enable us to look at perfect strangers and, in your name, call them sisters and brothers. Give us the insight to see the needs of others as claims upon our lives. God, help us to take responsibility for someone other than ourselves. Amen.
